The More Or The Less: "We, the people" (Street Date: 15th of October 2009, Lindo/Hoanzl)

Artist-Bio: The More Or The Less

It's all about the heart. And the head. But no matter where the music hits you: These songs cause emotions, may make you think and let the world look a little brighter for some moments.

For his debut-Album "We, the people" Tobias Pötzelsberger aka The More Or The Less has collected stories, that may happen within every day life: There is a woman ("Ms. Andersen", Track 4), sitting in a car, with a letter in her hands and tears in her eyes; there is a girl ("All in all", Track 1) that tries to save an obviously illuminated young man from getting drowned in the rain; and there is a fight, that no one is interested in ("Backyard Affair", Track 6).

„I wanted to make a warm sounding, analog record“, says The More Or The Less.

Well done! The More Or The Less put very fine arranged music to these stories, ranging from singer-songwriting to folk and pop. Inspirations might have been Teitur or Elliot Smith, Kristofer Aström or Death cab for Cutie.

Often these songs are floating, they always look for great melodies – they are like a soundtrack to a roadmovie: melancholy, but never depressing. It's all about the heart.

Presse: „The songs are made very carefully. They sound very cautious, as if he was – while singing – still asking if everything he feels and sings about was right or not.“ (Bernhard Flieher in: Salzburger Nachrichten)
